

How fast is “on demand” RD staffing?

Average time to fill a position:

9 days

*after a contract
is in place*

A contract, you say?

That’s right! All assignments originate from a pay-per-use contract. The timing of getting paperwork signed is a crucial factor in maintaining our “on-demand” timeline.

To expedite the contract process, investigate who will be involved in the approval and signing process before submitting a request.

Pro tips for the fastest service

- First, check with your leadership to determine the contract approval process
- Have a budget range in mind
- Submit your job using our detailed coverage request form, and fill it out completely
